J-Ticket FAQ

What is the J-Ticket?

The J-Ticket program is designed to maintain and grow Jewish Akron families' engagement in the community. Think of it as a "bundle of services" at Akron's Jewish institutions. The J-Ticket will significantly reduce the cost of the Mandel Early Childhood Education program at The Shaw JCC or The Lippman School tuition, and the Shaw JCC traditional Jewish day camp or the Mandel ECE Summer Playhouse. It also includes membership at a participating synagogue.

What is the Program Voucher?

Each J-Ticket also includes a $250 program voucher gift card to be used for fees for any program/event/activity in the Akron Jewish community— held by any participating Jewish organization/agency/synagogue in Akron.

How does the J-Ticket work?

A Jewish family pays the annual fee for the desired J-Ticket, then the participating agencies and synagogues involved are paid a predetermined amount per J-Ticket by the JCBA. The Lippman School and Mandel ECE J-Ticket benefits are for the respective school year. (Enrollment during the year may be prorated.)

How can I buy a J-Ticket?

The J-Ticket is open to all Jewish families, regardless of financial need. J-Tickets can be purchased by the participants themselves or by family members, such as parents, grandparents, aunts and uncles. Payments may be made in full to Jewish Community Board of Akron (JCBA) or payments can be arranged through the Lippman School or the Mandel ECE respectively depending on the ticket purchased.

Can I purchase more than one J-Ticket?

Families with one child in The Lippman School and one child in the Mandel ECE may purchase one J-Ticket in each program for a total of two J-Tickets. No family may have two J-Tickets in the same program. An application is needed for each child.

JCBA Annual Campaign Requirement

JCBA's Annual Campaign supports Jewish education in Akron, builds bridges to Israel, provides care for our community's seniors, cultivates young Jewish leaders and nurtures and supports community connections – globally and right here at home. A minimum commitment of $180 to the JCBA Annual Campaign is required for all J-Ticket purchasers. Give today at www.jewishakron.org/annual-campaign or call 330-869-2424.
